A Midweek Connection Study Series

Lesson 17
“Let’s Sum It All Up”
Ecclesiastes 12:9-14

We finally reach the end of Ecclesiastes. The conclusion here is not just a restatement of what has been said; it’s the culmination of everything. These 12 chapters have built up to one ultimate, simple conclusion that deserves our full attention. This encapsulates the essence of the entire journey we’ve undertaken through the book.

Like a mountain range, Ecclesiastes is filled with both peaks and valleys. Under the sun, life is vanity, temporary, “poof” (hevel). It’s like chasing after the wind. In the fear of God, life is worth living. We’ve seen valleys of unfairness, our inability to control our lives, and the limits of wisdom. But the ultimate conclusion of this book is glorious. It takes us to the summit, where the view is clear and the lesson is life-changing: Center your life in the fear of God.

Ponder Solomon’s Dedication, Designed to Teach You (vs. 9-10).

- He taught you with wisdom. (v. 9a).
- He taught you with order (v. 9b).
 - Weighing the facts
 - Seeking the truth
 - Organizing the proverbs
- He taught you with impact (v. 10).
 - His proverbs were joyful.
 - His proverbs were straight-forward.
 - His proverbs were true.

Other Notes: _____

Value His Advice, Given to Help You (vs. 11-12).

- You need words of wisdom (v. 11).
 - Wise words rebuke you.
 - Wise words advise you.
 - Wise words guide you.

- You don't need excessive knowledge (v. 12).

Other Notes: _____

Embrace the Ultimate Conclusion, Meant to Change You (vs. 13-14).

- Accept the admonitions (v. 13).
 - Fear God.
 - Obey God.
- Realize the reasons why (vs. 13b-14).
 - God should be your top priority in life.
 - God will hold you accountable for your life.

Other Notes: _____

Prayer

Scripture: ¹Then I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. ²My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. ⁸The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.
 Psalm 121:1-2, 8
